

SRA Standards and Regulations Reforms

Are You Ready?

Introduction & Course Content

The SRA Handbook is being replaced by a new series of Standards and Regulations (STaR). It is crucial that all lawyers understand what is changing and to effectively prepare for the new regulatory regime. This course will:

- Provide an overview of the reforms
- Identify key areas of STaR and practical things to think through
- Consider opportunities for firms in the new landscape

Speaker(s)

David Gilmore, Director, DG Legal

David has provided advice and assistance to hundreds of law firms and other legal organisations. He delivers specialist consultancy and training on a wide range of topics including business management & strategy, tendering, compliance and quality assurance.

David also founded and regularly contributes to LegalVoice, a not-for-profit online magazine for legal professionals. Prior to establishing DG Legal, David worked for Abbey, Marks & Spencer and the Legal Services Commission in varying senior management roles. In 2016 David was appointed as a Commissioner advising Lord Bach on policy relating to Justice and Legal Aid.

Matt Howgate, Consultant, DG Legal

Matthew is a non-practising solicitor and was formerly Senior Legal Adviser and Head of Continuous Improvement at the Legal Services Commission. He was also Legal Standards Principal at the Co-operative Legal Services.

Since 2008 he has been providing expert organisational development, compliance and strategy consultancy. He has particular expertise in SRA and BSB compliance issues, data protection (and GDPR) compliance and is recognised as a leading expert on the legal aid scheme (indeed he is a member of the managing committee at the Legal Aid Practitioner's Group).

SRA Standards and Regulations Reforms

Why You Should Attend?

This course is aimed at all law firms (and those working with them). The content of the course is relevant to all managers, principals and lawyers wishing to improve their understanding of the SRA Standards and Regulations.

Course Notes

Comprehensive and up to date course notes will be provided to all delegates which may be useful for ongoing reference or cascade training.

Continuing Professional Development

As of 1 November 2014, the SRA ceased to accredit all training providers, including ourselves, for CPD purposes. As a result, our courses can no longer be accredited. Solicitors are permitted to continue to use DG Legal to fulfil their CPD requirements and/or as a means to evidence that they have attended professional training as part of the SRA's new competence based scheme. Attending this course equates to 3 hours CPD.
