

HM Courts &
Tribunals Service

We want to hear from you

If you're a barrister, solicitor or legal executive, we want to hear your views as we develop the future of our courts and tribunals

We're investing £1bn to make access to justice quicker, easier and fairer. As part of our wider work to engage all those who use and work within the justice system, we are holding a series of events aimed at the legal profession.

So, if you're a legal professional, have your say at one of the following events:

- Newcastle Combined Court (Monday 27th November)
with HMCTS CEO Susan Acland-Hood
- Manchester Civil Justice Centre (Wednesday 29th November)
with HMCTS Deputy CEO Kevin Sadler
- London Royal Courts of Justice (Monday 11th December)
with HMCTS CEO Susan Acland-Hood

You can register your interest in attending by visiting

Further events across other Circuits will be held in early 2018 and will be announced shortly.
